INTRODUCTION.

This publication has been compiled with the idea of presenting to the general public a concise "Directory" of the Colored Population in the District of Columbia, showing the names, addresses, and occupations, that is to say, of those over sixteen years of age, male and female, together with a list of the Churches, Schools, Colleges, Homes, Orphan Asylums, Hospitals, Infirmaries, and other Colored institutions.

We have spared neither time nor expense and have employed only capable enumerators in our endeavor. The omission of any name or failure to mention any enterprise or institution consequently is unintentional.

We wish to take this opportunity to thank those, especially the Colored business men who so readily gave their support as is evidenced by the insertion of their advertisement and believing that it will be found a valuable as well as a convenient "Ready Reference," we solicit co-operation for future success.

THE Washington Bee

This paper was established June 3rd, 1880, by W. Calvin Chase, Sr. It has outlived all secular and political papers that have ever been published in this city.

The Bee has approved all public measures which have been beneficial to the people irrespective of religious or political creeds.

The Bee has commanded the respect of the people and it can create a greater sentiment for or against a proposition than any paper edited by a negro.

It has received its support from the best and leading business houses in the city.

In politics the Bee is a Republican, but reserves the right to criticize leaders of each political party, and it has a national reputation for fearlessness and steadfastness to republican principles.

It was the Bee that led the fight for President Taft in this city and which has loyally supported him since his nomination.

The Bee employs a manager, five clerks, four local reporters, two advertising solicitors, and four printers.

BIOGRAPHY OF W. CALVIN CHASE, SR.

Mr. W. Calvin Chase, Sr., the publisher of "The Bee" which was established June 3rd, 1880, was born in this city on the spot where his paper is published.

His father was a blacksmith, a musician and an author who came from one of the leading families in Maryland.

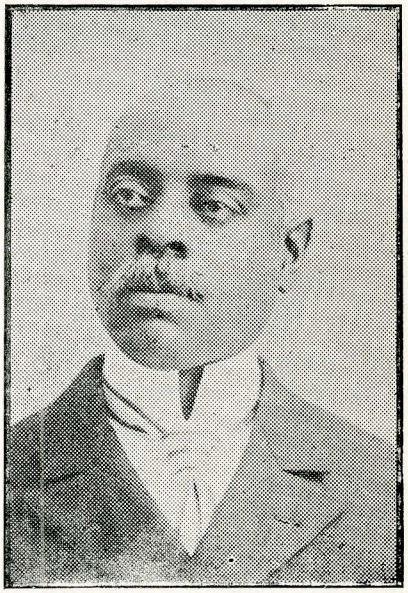
Mr. Chase was educated in the public schools of Washington. He also attended school at Methuen, Mass., and Howard University of this city where he graduated with honors.

He was admitted to the bar of the District of Columbia on the motion of Ex-Judge E. M. Hewlett; has also been admitted to the bar in the State of Virginia.

He was a clerk in the War Department during the administration of the late Ex-President Benjamin Harrison.

He was twice commissioned a Notary Public by our martyred President Wm. McKinley. At the expiration of these commissions he was again commissioned by Ex-President Roosevelt and his commission expires in 1913.

He was the first colored inspector of foods appointed in the District of Columbia.



W. CALVIN CHASE, SR.

Mr. Chase, like most all public spirited citizens, has been subjected to much criticism. That in the aggregate this has been unjust has been proven by the confidence which has been placed in him by a great majority of the voting population of the District of Columbia by and through their endorsement as has been evidenced by their sending him for the fifth time as a delegate to our National Convention which has the unquestionable honor of nominating the candidate for the highest office within the gift of the American people, that of the President of the United States.

EDUCATION

The schools are managed by a Board of Education consisting of nine citizens, three of whom are colored—Richard R. Horner, Caroline W. Harris and the third unnamed at this time.

Separate schools are maintained for white and colored children. In the colored schools, of which Roscoe Conklin Bruce is superintendent, there are many of the best educators of the country. The District is also the seat of Howard University, the leading colored institution of learning in the United States. This university has a preparatory department, a college department, a teachers' school, a splendidly equipped medical department, which is connected with Freedman's Hospital (the largest, most modern and finest hospital conducted by colored people in the world), and a law school from which there have been graduated more than one-half of the colored attorneys of the country.
